Camp HOPE America offers a safe, supportive environment for children and teens impacted by trauma. Domestic violence and related abuse have long-term effects on youth. Camp HOPE is a free, week-long camp designed to help these children heal, break down trauma barriers, and move toward a positive, healthy future.

Participant Eligibility Requirements

- The participant (aged 11-16) and the participant's caregiver received services at a Family Justice Center, Multi-Agency Center, or community-based agency, such as InterAct.
- Demonstrates an ability to emotionally self-regulate, as evidenced by direct observation, caregiver feedback, or feedback from a professional (coach, teacher, afterschool provider) who regularly interacts with the participant.
